

Considering further education?

The John Cope Trust could help

GMB EDUCATION

GMB

LONDON REGION

JCT

One of the many benefits GMB London Region

offer members is The John Cope Trust.

This is set up for members interested in pursuing courses or further education funded by the London Region.

About the John Cope Trust

The John Cope Trust was established in 1997 aiming to:

- Be open to all members even those who are unemployed or retired from affiliated Branches
- Offer equal access regardless of personal status
- Provide sponsorship for non-residential courses
- Seek to provide real financial assistance for the duration of the course
- Promote education which will benefit the Trade Union and the Labour movement
- Be flexible in its delivery and approach
- Monitor, encourage and promote the individual's success

Join GMB today

www.gmb.org.uk/gmb-join or scan

GMB London Region
John Cope House, 152 Brent Street, Hendon, NW4 2DP. www.gmblondon.org.uk

The conditions for application/sponsorship are as follows;

- Applicants must have paid 53 weeks' consecutive subscriptions
- Letter of endorsement from their Branch
- Report on course progress to Branch/Region at set intervals
- Provision of receipts as necessary
- Permission to use sponsorship in recruitment literature on behalf of the Region
- Agreement to return any monies not used for the purpose granted by the Trustees

Courses

Sponsorships have been awarded to members undertaking courses as varied as; sign language, politics, health and safety, social economics, media studies, information technology, horticulture, plus many more

How Can I Get involved with GMB?

Joining GMB and becoming a member is the first step. The more members there are the more say you have as a worker.

Contact

If you would like to find out more information about The John Cope Trust, please contact Helen Mendieta on 01582 393165, helen.mendieta@gmb.org.uk, or Paul Ward on 01603 626492, or paul.ward@gmb.org.uk

